These classes are run by the Auckland Region of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society (RSCDS). The RSCDS is a worldwide organisation formed in 1923 to preserve and further the practice of Scottish Country Dancing through such activities as classes and the publication of books and music. The Auckland Region coordinates activities involving the 20 clubs from Tuakau to Kaitiaki.

All dancers may attend beginners and elementary classes. For other levels, we encourage members to belong to the New Zealand Branch of the RSCDS.

Details about this are available from your club.

The Auckland Region, NZ Branch Inc., Royal Scottish Country Dance Society will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to property or injury to dancers or spectators during these classes.
